

THE TOPEKA TATTLE

Telling the World about Topeka Lions . . .

Topeka, Kansas

Vol. 78
Next Meeting May 7, 2007

Published: May 2, 2007
Meeting Place: Top of the Tower

Number 36
12:05 p.m.

MONDAY MAY 7: Leonard R. Allen, Director of Investor Education & Media Relations, Office of the Kansas Securities Commissioner will address the Topeka Lions Club with the message: Don't get scammed. Investigate before you invest. Lion Paul Halsey will introduce our speaker.

LAST MONDAY: High School Seniors from the seven local high schools were our guests. From Seaman High, Michelle Kozubek and Michael Reb; Hayden High, Jill Dorsey and Joe Deneault; Highland Park, Charnele Sanders and Kyle Burkhardt; Washburn Rural, Shruti Sharma and Paul Thurbon; Topeka High, Mallory McGinnis and Pablo Kennedy; Topeka West, Kimberly Clouse and Samantha Brant; and Shawnee Heights, Doug Brady and Stefine Pease. What terrific representatives.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Lions are welcome at the Journey for Sight meeting for May 2, at the Washburn University Maybee Library, room 205. Meeting time is 12 noon. Room 205 is on same floor that you enter the library.

Shunga Trail Clean-up is Saturday, May 12. Plan to meet at the skate board park near 23rd and Washburn about 7:30 AM for an hour of walking the trail and picking up trash.

There will be no noon meetings May 14th or 28th.

Lion Phil Menninger was not present for the meal drawing.