Number 13
12:05 p.m.

MONDAY OCTOBER 22: Michael Stoica, Washburn University, will talk and present a power point presentation about his recent trip to Italy and the Vatican. Lion Michael is a member of the Topeka Lions Club.

LAST MONDAY: Bill Calwell told of his many personal episodes, memories, and coincidences. The 99 year-old resident of Aldersgate Village says it is difficult coping with macular degeneration yet he has self-published two books in the last few years. He donates the proceeds to charities. Mr. Caldwell was introduced by Lion Phil Menninger.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Lion Bill Martin passed around a thank-you card from Jeremiah, his mother, and the Stout Elementary School for purchasing glasses for Jeremiah.

Lions Barbara and Spencer Smith each received the 5 year perfect attendance awards.

Journey For Sight run has grossed over $6,000.00 this year. A complete accounting will be available as soon as all the bills are presented. 45 runners participated and 87 preregistered for the race.

Thanks to all the Lions who volunteered at our first Travelog for the year. The trip was a favorite for many viewers. Next show is November 7th and we are going to Great Britain. Mark your calendar and bring some friends.

Park clean-up was canceled because of rain last Saturday. See you November 10th at 8:00 AM.

Our Guest speaker, Mr. Calwell won the surprise gift package.
Lion Tara Van Houweling was not present for the meal drawing.
