MONDAY DECEMBER 17: First United Methodist Church, Topeka, published a book of Christmas memories from their adult Sunday School Class. Alice Eberhart Wright and Lee Wright will talk about the newly published book and sing a song written about the book. Lion Marcia Manter will introduce the presenters.

LAST MONDAY: Annual Christmas Party was a great success. Jane Anderson and Mark Pudwill played four-handed piano selections of favorite holiday carols and melodies to the delight of all present. Guests and Lions numbered 41. Lion Forrest Davidson introduced our talented pianists.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Campaign Sight First II Cookbooks are available and make wonderful gifts for someone who cooks. Contact Lion Barbara Smith at 273-7818.

Lions Journey for Sight committee meeting has been rescheduled to Wednesday, December 19, at noon, Maybee Library, Washburn Campus, Room 205. This meeting is to complete the 2007 Journey and start planning for the 2008 Journey. Everyone welcome.

To help with your holidays there will be no meetings December 24 and December 31.

Blog. Blog. Blog. Be watching your email for a way you can be in conversation with your fellow Lions concerning our agenda, membership events, other concerns or opportunities for our club. Participation is entirely voluntary. Blogs do not clog your email box but are a way to converse and stay in touch with events.

Lion Paul Halsey was present for the meal drawing.
